

1. Put the dialogue into the correct order.

- You are welcome. See you on my birthday.
- What time should I come?
- Of course. Thanks when is it?
- Hello, Samuel.
- At 7 in the evening.
- OK. Where are you going to celebrate it?
- I want to invite for my birthday party.
- See you. I'll be there.
- It's on the tenth of next month.
- At my house, of course.
- OK, I got it, Kitty. Thanks for the invitation.
- Would you like to join?

A: Hello, Kitty.

B:

A:

B:

A:

B:

A:

B:

A:

B:

A:

B:

2. Put the words in order to make sentences. Make the necessary changes. Use "be going to".

1. visit – tomorrow - Bill - his relatives - at 2 (+)
2. you - what - do – this weekend (?)
3. Mary and her friends - her birthday - celebrate - next week (-)
4. we - at the library - for English exam - at 10 – study (+)
5. your sister - this week - have a party (?)

3. Read the paragraph.

Hi, I'm Emily. I'll talk about my best friend, Esra. We became friends five years ago. And now, we are best friends forever. I really love her so much and our relationship.

Esra is the same age as me. We are both 12 years old. She is medium-height and beautiful girl with brown eyes. She is one of the most popular and successful students at school.

The answer of why I love her isn't simple. There are a lot of things to mention. First of all, she is trustworthy. That is what I like most about her. You can share anything you want. That's why your secrets are in safe hands. If she is available, she never refuses to help. She also supports me. We back each other up. I have great confidence when she is on my side. Everybody loves her, so do I.

She knows how to enjoy her life and herself. It is impossible to get bored while being with her. We have lots of things in common. As an example, we walk to school together in the mornings. During and after school, we never miss seeing each other. I can't imagine any day that I don't spend with her. She makes jokes and I find her jokes amusing.

At the weekends, we love going out with friends. Sometimes we see a movie at the cinema. We both enjoy science fiction and comedy films. We also play basketball. I am better than her when it comes to basketball, but playing basketball with her makes me really happy. If the weather is nice, we certainly have picnic.

a) Mark the statements True or False

1.Emily and Esra get on well each other. ()
2.Esra doesn't want to help others. ()
3.To Emily, Esra is a regular person just like the others. ()
4.Esra's characteristic feature is more important to Emily than her appearance. ()
5.Esra isn't good at keeping secrets. ()

b) Find and write the correct words in the reading passage for definitions.

Words

Definitions

- You always tell the truths and never lie.
- The same or similar things done together
- Known by people
- You are watching a movie which isn't interesting so you are about to fall asleep.
- Lost or wasted chances.

c) Answer the questions.

1. What makes Emily special?
2. Do Esra and Emily always back up?
3. Are Emily and Esra great buddies?
4. What does Esra do when anyone asks for help?
5. How often do they hang out?

d) Circle the correct answers.

Emily invites her best friend, Esra to her slumber party. Esra doesn't have any plan that night. What may be Esra's respond?

- A) That would be great, but I don't feel good. Sorry.
- B) A slumber party? Oh, I don't like such parties, you know.
- C) Of course. I'll definitely be there.
- D) I like you, but my intention is to go to the cinema with my parents.

Esra is at home. She wants to spend time with Emil, but she doesn't want to go out. What does she say?

- A) What would you like to drink?
- B) Can you come along?
- C) Do you promise you won't tell to anybody?
- D) Shall we go for a walk?

e) Complete the list of activities Emily and Esra do together.

f) Write the characteristic features of Esra mentioned in the passage.

