

Reading

Hi! My name is Rhonda. I work here. I love this job because I'm a bookworm. I help students find the books they need. Laso, I know this place very well and I organize the books. Newspapers are under the magazines and they are on the first shelf. Poetry books are next to the novels and the short stories are near the poetry books. They are all on the second shelf. The third shelf is for the books about lessons. History books are between the science books and the geography books.
