

Reading

My Predictions

About the future, let me make a guess,
I will definitely be so rich and famous,
I may not live in a big city,
Because I will probably own many islands.

My best friend will be a high-tech robot,
And my singing career will be excellent,
Who knows, maybe I will get married.
And live happily in a peaceful new World.

William

Test

1. The poem is about - - - .

Which of the following completes the sentence?

- A) William's life right now
- B) William's life in the past
- C) William's life in general
- D) William's life in the coming years

2. Which of the following is William's dream job?

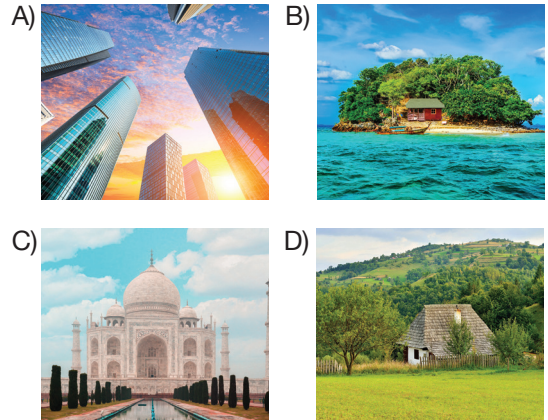

3. William will probably - - - .

Which of the following completes the sentence above?

- A) have a lot of money
- B) get married
- C) have a life without technology
- D) be very popular

4. Which of the following is William's dream house?

Writing

EXERCISE 1: Write a letter to your 10 years later future self.

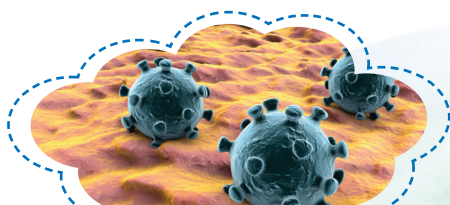

Include information about:

- Your dream school, job, city and house.
- Use the phrases “probably”, “definitely” and “will”.

Dear future me,

EXERCISE 2: Make predictions about the given topics and write them in sentences.

e.g. Your predictions about COVID 19:

I think Covid-19 will come to an end in two years. People will stop using masks and they will be healthier.

3. Your predictions about next year's football championship:

1. Your predictions about the World peace:

4. Your predictions about fashion and clothes:

2. Your predictions about the environment:

5. Your predictions about your favourite TV series:
