

Reading

This is a frog. It is green. There are frogs in the river. This is a whale. It is a big fish. It is blue. This is a bear. It is big and brown. There is a bear in the cave. This is a dolphin. It is blue and grey. I like dolphins. This is a bee. It is small. It is black and yellow. There are bees in the forests. I like mountains, but I don't like deserts. This is a pigeon. It is small and grey. This is a ladybird. It is small. It is red and black. This is a seagull. It is a bird. It is white. This is a shark. It is grey. There are two sharks in the sea.

EXERCISE 1: Write the names of the animals.

whale

frog

shark

ladybird

bear

dolphin

bee

seagull

pigeon

EXERCISE 2: Write sentences according to the visuals.

Ex: I like/love dolphins, but I dislike sharks.

- |                   |                        |
|-------------------|------------------------|
| 1. whale/frog     | Students' own answers. |
| 2. ladybird/bear  | Students' own answers. |
| 3. dolphin/pigeon | Students' own answers. |
| 4. seagull/shark  | Students' own answers. |

EXERCISE 3: Answer the questions according to the text.

- |                                   |                           |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Are there four dolphins?       | No. There is one dolphin. |
| 2. Do you like seagulls?          | Yes, I do.                |
| 3. Is the whale red?              | No, it isn't.             |
| 4. Are there bees in the forests? | Yes, there are.           |
| 5. Do you like deserts?           | No, I don't.              |