

İNGİLİZCE

Words and Phrases

ballot box	fair law	candidate
vote	president	campaign
public	give a speech	election
	envelope

Meanings

election: the process of choosing by voting

campaign: planned activities to achieve a political aim

candidate: is the person who wants to be elected

president: the leader of a group, organization or a republic

republic: a country governed by the elected politicians

public: ordinary people in society in general

vote: formal choice in an election

Dialogue

Mom: Bella, honey! Did you finish your homework?

Bella: Yes, mom. I'm preparing an election campaign poster now.

Mom: What is it for?

Bella: We have a class president election tomorrow and I am one of the candidates.

Mom: Oh! That's so nice! Are you excited about it?

Bella: Yes, mom. I am very excited. I prepared a speech for my campaign.

Mom: Do you know the steps of an election?

Bella: Yes, mom. First, you should decide to be a candidate. Then, you should give a speech about your plans.

Mom: Do you know how to vote?

Bella: Yes. Our teacher explained us how to vote. We write the name of our candidate on a paper and fold it. Then, we put the paper into the ballot box and after the election is over, we count the votes. Finally, one of the candidates becomes the president. Everybody should respect the results.

Mom: I think you are ready to be the president, honey. Good luck!

Bella: Thanks mom!